MYERSVILLE, MD - October 15, 2008 - As further testimony to its dedication to culinary excellence, Musket Ridge Golf Club is proud to announce that Executive Chef Kyle Roberson won the category of 'Most Delectable Dessert' at the twelfth annual An Evening on the Riviera in Frederick, MD on October 10, 2008.

Judged by a panel of experts that included top chefs and food and beverage professionals, over two dozen local restaurants and catering businesses participated in the competition.

Chef Kyle's prize-winning Grand Marnier Chocolate Mousse, presented in a white and dark chocolate tulip cup and topped with a raspberry and sprinkled confectioner's sugar delighted over 450 guests and will no doubt soon increase in popularity with Musket Ridge's brides, meeting managers and golf outing coordinators. Comments Chef Kyle, "It was a pleasant surprise. Desserts are the area where I have the least formal training so I have really been working to try new things and it is nice to receive this kind of recognition. It certainly will inspire me to keep creating new ideas."

As property manager with Affinity Management, David Swales supervises Chef Kyle, and is a qualified chef in his own right. Of Chef Kyle Swales observes, "He is a great chef and a great guy. He is not a prima donna so he works really well with our clientele. He comes with a great background including Legal Seafoods, but he absolutely does not ever rest on his laurels."

An Evening on the Riviera is the Frederick, MD area's premier food and wine extravaganza. An annual black tie event, it showcases the region's finest kitchens, caterers, wine cellars, and entertainment, with proceeds benefiting local not-for-profit organizations.

Musket Ridge was rated #7 in the state of Maryland by Golfweek Magazine in 2008 and is the Official Maryland Golf Course of the Washington Nationals. Catoctin Hall at Musket Ridge has been called "Maryland's Best New Event Venue."
