MYERSVILLE, MD - November 25, 2008 - Musket Ridge Golf Club collected over 600 pounds of turkey to donate to less fortunate families in the area with the Turkey Shoot for the Needy on Saturday, November 22, 2008. Golfers braved the cold weather to participate in the tournament and contributed frozen turkeys that Musket Ridge gave to the Frederick Community Action Agency.

David Swales, managing director of Affinity Management (www.affinitymanagement.com), which runs Musket Ridge, said, "I became a US citizen this year after moving from the UK over a decade ago. I've been impressed by how much Americans help those in need, especially in tough times. I'm delighted that Musket Ridge celebrated its seventh anniversary by helping families put a decent meal on their table, and I am proud to have participated as well."

The Turkey Shoot for the Needy began at 10 am on Saturday, November 22nd with a shotgun start. The scramble format tournament included cart, range balls, prizes, and lunch - fresh homemade chili and hot biscuits from Musket Ridge Executive Chef Kyle Roberson.

The Frederick Community Action Agency (www.cityoffrederick.com) provides food, shelter, medical care, housing, and other forms of assistance to families and individuals that are low-income or homeless. Started in 1968, FCAA is sponsored by the City of Frederick and the Friends for Neighborhood Progress, Inc. with support from the Frederick County Government and the United Way of Frederick County.

Musket Ridge was rated #7 in the state of Maryland by Golfweek Magazine in 2008 and is the Official Maryland Golf Course of the Washington Nationals. Catocin Hall at Musket Ridge has been called "Maryland's Best New Event Venue."
