MYERSVILLE, MD - November 23, 2015- Musket Ridge Golf Club collected over 1,800 pounds of turkey to donate to less fortunate families in the area with the annual Turkey Shoot for the Needy on Saturday, November 21, 2015. The 112 participating golfers contributed frozen turkeys that Musket Ridge gave to the Frederick Community Action Agency.

David Swales, managing director of Affinity Management (www.affinitymanagement.com), which runs Musket Ridge, said, "Many of us take it for granted that we can stuff ourselves with a terrific meal, but many are less fortunate this Thanksgiving and could use a helping hand. I am terribly proud that our members demonstrated such generosity so a few of our neighbors could have a more enjoyable meal."

The Turkey Shoot for the Needy began at 10 am on Saturday, November 21st with a shotgun start. The scramble format tournament included cart, range balls, prizes, and lunch - fresh homemade chili and hot biscuits from Musket Ridge Executive Chef Kyle Roberson.

The Frederick Community Action Agency (www.cityoffrederick.com) provides food, shelter, medical care, housing, and other forms of assistance to families and individuals that are low-income or homeless. Started in 1968, FCAA is sponsored by the City of Frederick and the Friends for Neighborhood Progress, Inc. with support from the Frederick County Government and the United Way of Frederick County.

Affinity Management advises, manages and owns private clubs, golf courses, equestrian facilities and other member-based businesses. Affinity has worked with clubs in twenty-six states since 1997. Contact Affinity at www.affinitymanagement.com or 434-817-4570.

Musket Ridge has been one of Golfweek's top ten courses in Maryland for the past 10 years and was named Best Golf Course by Frederick Magazine. Catocin Hall at Musket Ridge has been called "Maryland's Best New Event Venue" and is the first zero food waste facility in the United States.
